Stage 2

Depending on which university you transfer to study abroad and complete your degree program, you will be given access to that university's online systems. You will be able to conduct a variety of activities online such as enrolling in the units, checking exam results, accessing e-library and learning resources or searching timetables. All important information about your course and university policies will be provided on the orientation date of your transfer university. Make sure you attend this event to get the most out of it!

Academic Information

All students beginning at UEH-ISB will undergo a period of adjustment. This section will provide information about the general academic system at the University and help you to prepare for what to expect during your study. To be successful at university, it is important that you:

- Understand what is required of you in terms of study and assessment tasks at university
- Attend all of your lectures, tutorials and examinations
- Do not plagiarise.

Learning Guide

The learning guide contains all the basic information about a unit, including lecturer contact information, learning outcomes, assessment details, learning resources and schedule of teaching/learning activities.

You should use this as a primary resource throughout the duration of the unit and refer to it for any questions. A soft-copy of the learning guide will be available on the E-learning system one week before the commencement of each class.

You are recommended to save a copy of learning guide to your personal computers for future use.

Assessment tasks

Forms of assessments can include written assignments, oral presentations and exams. Assignments are academic tasks that you have to submit to your lecturers or tutors to show your understanding and engagement with your subject. To produce good assignments, you should:

- Know your course outline, course objectives, important dates, and recommended readings
- Read the set readings as well as recommended references
- Write academically
- Manage your time well.

Lectures/Tutorials

Lectures will examine specific topics focusing on critical issues and real world practical application of the content. Lectures are not simply a regurgitation of the textbook content. Sometimes there may be information presented in lectures that is not covered in the textbook – this information is examinable.

It is helpful if you have completed the required reading prior to viewing lecture resources on the E-learning system and in soft copies (if provided) as this assists in your ability to engage with the material. If for some reasons you are unable to complete required readings in a specific week, you must still view the resources and try to catch up on your reading as soon as possible afterwards. Any such information is examinable, so it definitely will be beneficial to view all lecture resources.

You may have trouble understanding a lecturer's accent or find that some speak too quickly. Be patient, as you get used to the language, things will become easier. But also, don't hesitate to ask your teacher to speak slowly.

Tutorials following the lectures provide students the opportunity to apply and share knowledge by doing a variety of in-class activities individually or in group such as exercises, discussion, and presentation. These activities focus on demonstrating your skills and help you build your ability to achieve the learning outcomes for each unit.

Tutorial questions/exercises will be provided in class. You will be expected to have completed specific reading and exercises from the text books and other required materials prior to attending each lecture and tutorial class. If you have not prepared adequately, you will not get the full benefits from this learning opportunity.

How to avoid plagiarism

The act of using the words or ideas of another person without acknowledgment is called plagiarism. Plagiarism is a kind of cheating and is considered a crime. If you hand in an assignment without acknowledging your resources, you are likely to fail and be asked to rewrite it. You may fail that unit or even be suspended from university.

You can avoid plagiarism by using the accepted referencing technique. Referencing means acknowledging/ citing in your writing the sources of your information and ideas. These sources may include books, journal or magazine articles, newspapers, company, government or institutional reports, websites or personal communications among others.

Why referencing is essential

Referencing is a way of showing recognition and respect for intellectual property. Your references show how widely you have read and indicate the quality of research and the sources that have influenced your thinking.

Textbooks

You will find out the prescribed textbook(s) for each unit from the unit guide. In most cases you will be required to pay an additional fee for the required text. It is your responsibility to find out what books you need for each unit and to make sure that you have a copy by the first day of class.

Assignment Coversheet and Peer Evaluation Form

All assignments are to be submitted with an Assignment Cover Sheet, either with an individual or group assignment. In addition, group assignments are to be submitted with a Student Evaluation of Group Member Form. These forms can be found in the Student forms section at MyISB.

Study Abroad

Cost of living:

As a Australian student visa holder, you will be required to have approximately AU$ 20,290 per person per year for living expenses, as advised by the Australian Government. In New Zealand, if you study for 36 weeks or more, you will need to provide evidence of at least NZ$15,000 for each year of study.

However, the actual cost depends on your individual lifestyle, whether you have a part time job, share apartment with your friends and whether you can cook yourself. Remember, your living expenses are separate from your tuition fees.

Annual Expenses	Australia	New Zealand
Living costs	AU$ 20,290	NZ$ 15,000
Other expenses	AU$ 2,000	NZ$ 2,930

Accommodation

Choosing the right accommodation will help you transition smoothly to university life, get stuck into your studies and start building lifelong memories and friendships. There are various options available to students looking for affordable accommodation.

* On-campus accommodation

Living among vibrant community is one of the best experiences you can possibly have as a student. The student accommodation is unique as it provides a balanced academic and social lifestyle among a supportive environment you can't get anywhere else. You can check more information about on-campus accommodation of each university from these link below:

- Western Sydney: <https://campuslivingvillages.com/australia/sydney/western-sydney-university-village-parramatta>
- Macquarie: <https://www.mq.edu.au/about/campus-services-and-facilities/macquarie-university-accommodation>
- Wollongong: <https://www.uow.edu.au/study/accommodation/live-on-campus/campus-east/>
- Waikato: <https://www.waikato.ac.nz/student-life/accommodation/on-campus-accommodation>

 Off-campus accommodation

If you are interested in living close to the campus, but not on campus, check out popular real estate websites in Australia, including <http://www.domain.com.au> and <http://realestate.com.au/buy>; and in New Zealand <https://www.tenancy.govt.nz/>. These sites are not run by the University but you will be supported by us as well as other UEH-ISB students currently studying in Australia and New Zealand.

 Homestay

In Australia, home stay is a single or shared room in a private home, usually 'full board', which means that all meals are provided. The minimum stay is four weeks. This is a great opportunity to live and interact with an Australian family or to give you enough time to settle and find your own way in a new environment. Prices for home stay accommodation vary, however a typical home stay will be around AU$ 300 per week.

Similarly in New Zealand, homestay is living with a local family in a private home. Your homestay family will help you to settle into life in New Zealand and learn about New Zealand culture. The cost of homestay accommodation can vary depending on the location and the type of accommodation, however a typical homestay will be around NZ$ 266 per week.

Student visa application

 Australian student visa application

If you intend to study in Australia, you will need to apply for the Student visa (Subclass 500). The officer assessing the visa will consider whether the individual circumstances of the student indicates that the intention is for a temporary stay in Australia. You must satisfy them that you have a genuine intention to stay in Australia temporarily.

In addition, you must provide sufficient funds to cover your travel costs and 12 months of living and tuition fees for you and your accompanying family members. You will also need to present evidence of your English language proficiency. The minimum English language test score required is as below:

English language test providers	Minimum test score
IELTS	5.5
TOEFL ibt	46
Cambridge English: Advanced	162
Pearson Test	42

It is important that you maintain your student visa conditions while studying on a student visa in Australia. Currently enrolled international students are expected to complete their study within the timeframe stated on their CoE (Confirmation of Enrollment).

If you have completed two year degree level qualification, you may be eligible for a Post Study Work Visa (subclass 485).

 New Zealand student visa application

As an international student, you will need to obtain a student visa (INZ 1013) before you travel to New Zealand.

You also must provide sufficient funds to cover your travel costs and 12 months of living and tuition fees for you and your accompanying family members. You do not need to present evidence of your English language test results when applying for student visa, but it is also essential for you to meet the English language entry requirements of the University.

Working rights for international students

In Australia, international students will be able to work up to 40 hours per fortnight once your course has commenced and during any period in which your course is in session. You will be able to work unrestricted hours during any scheduled course break.

In New Zealand, international students may be allowed to work for up to 20 hours each week and full-time all scheduled vacations and/or during the Christmas and New Year holiday period (summer vacation).

Adjusting to a new country and culture

The process of adjusting to a new country and culture is called 'culture shock'. Culture shock occurs gradually and takes time and effort to process and overcome.

Understanding Australia's and New Zealand's culture, people and law can go a long way to helping you adjust. You can learn about these topics on the Australian Government's website <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/> and the New Zealand Government's website <https://www.govt.nz/>.

Requirements for Studying at Uni

Independent learning

At university, your learning is your responsibility. Teachers are there to help you understand what you have to study and give you feedback on your assessments. However, it is your responsibility to learn, understand and complete course and administration requirements.

Critical thinking and critical analysis

Critical thinking is breaking information into parts, comparing, questioning and evaluating it. When you learn to think critically, it means you can think rationally and objectively.

Critical analysis is applying critical thinking so you can understand what you read or hear. It also means drawing links to other readings and lecture material. These skills are essential for writing effective assignments – showing your own position and argument while separating it from the evidence and references you use.

Know what's expected from you – be prepared

Get all the information about your classes, weekly topics, assessments, and timelines yourself! Your unit outline and learning guide are very good sources of this information. Read them thoroughly and check the marking criteria.

Engage with your topic – give yourself time to read, re-read, understand, discuss with others and think about it. Time management is an important skill to develop at university.

Tips to get the best from your lectures

Do not miss lectures

Before the lecture: always read before the lecture to become familiar with the topic and terms, phrases and words (key vocabulary) used in your unit.

In the lecture: listen carefully; do not write everything but take selective notes about the important points.

After the lecture: revise your notes and/or handouts. Do further reading/ research to fill in the gaps.

Participate actively in tutorials

Before the tutorial: do some preparation, revise your lecture notes, do your weekly readings, have something to share, or a question to ask. You may be marked on your tutorial participation.

In the tutorial: try to join in the discussion, listen to others, and listen to the comments of other students and the answers the lecturers/tutors give. Your contribution to the discussion may be assessed.

After the tutorial: revise what you have learnt, do further reading/research to fill in the gaps.

Essay writing at university

Writing essays at university is different from high school. In a university essay, you are expected to:

- Present your position (thesis/argument) in answer to the essay question and not only what others say. This means writing in your own voice (words) as much as possible
- Structure your essay well – introduction, body, conclusion and well structured paragraphs using references
- Write in an academic writing style: formal, grammatically correct and research- based
- Produce a good essay, check the marking criteria, analyse the question, plan your research and reading and write in a clear and coherent manner. Make sure you have enough time to edit and proofread before handing in an assignment.

If you're not sure what's expected of you, check your learning guide or you can also talk to your lecturer or tutor.

Paragraphs in university writing

Structure: topic sentence, supporting statements, references, concluding sentence, flow in writing and linking phrases (first of all, such as, therefore, however, etc).

The topic sentence states the main thesis/topic of the paragraph and the rest of the sentences explain and/or elaborate (support) the main point. Evidence is in the form of other writers' ideas (referenced) to support the main points and finally a concluding sentence indicating the writer's argument on the topic or linking to the next paragraph is given.

Reading at university

Reading university text books and related material is a skill and is essential for researching and writing essays and assessments. Be selective about what you read, choose a relevant book or article and skim or scan read for the key information. Be an active reader, know why you're reading, think about how it relates to the lecture or other material and take notes.

Be a selective reader

Select a relevant book/article to read then skim and/or scan, for example:

- look at the title, table of contents and index for specific information and keywords
- quickly read through the preface or introduction and conclusion to get a general idea or read the abstract of a journal article.

Referencing at university

Referencing is acknowledging the sources you've read and used in an assignment. Details of how to reference should be in each unit outline. If you have questions, talk to your lecturer or tutor.

You must reference all assignments at university. If you don't, you will be disciplined for plagiarism.

To avoid plagiarism:

- acknowledge (reference) everything that you borrow; ideas, words, music, images, tables, graphs
- always provide full references for sources you have consulted and used
- use the referencing system that your school prefers
- be consistent in your referencing style.

Tips For A Good First Year

Be bold

You have nothing to lose. Most students starting university don't know anyone either. It's worth saying 'hello' and starting a conversation because you might just make a new friend.

Ask questions

You're expected to follow up on anything that you have questions about and University staff encourage students to do that. The Academic Director can help you with choosing the suitable major, assessments and any questions about your course. Student Advisors can help you with all other questions.

Make the most of every opportunity

University life is not just about academic study and we want you to have the best experience possible.

Plan your time and be organised

University study is very independent and self-directed and that might be different to what you're used to. Make sure you know the important dates that relate to you and set reminders for them.

Learn new skills

Aim to become more self-sufficient.

Set short, medium and long term goals

Make sure your goals are achievable and meet all your needs (including your study and non-study life).

Manage your budget

Living and studying at uni can be very expensive. The costs for food, transport, accommodation and socialising can easily get out of control. Be aware of how much money you have, how much you can spend per week/month/session and plan how to get the most value for your money.

Stay healthy

A healthy body is essential for a healthy mind. A healthy diet includes: plenty of vegetables, legumes, fruit, cereals such as bread, pasta and noodles, lean meat, fish, poultry, and reduced fat milk and other dairy products. Learn how to cook simple, healthy meals. Don't skip breakfast – it is very important! Create opportunities for physical activity, e.g. ride a bike to uni. Limit your alcohol intake. Don't smoke. Keep in touch with your friends and family. If you are feeling homesick, talk to someone else about how you feel – any new student will probably feel much the same as you do.

Manage your stress

An overly stressed mind is an inefficient mind. Take time out everyday to unwind and relax mentally as well as physically. Make sure you have normal sleep patterns and do not miss sleep for work or study.

Know where to get help and don't be afraid to ask

The University provides a wide range of services that are free for students to access.

Top 10 things to remember for your exams

Bring a valid student ID card or Identity Card

Bring your pens and pencils.

If your exam allows use of resources, make sure you know what they are

Keep checking your exam timetable up to the date of your exam.

Know how you are getting to your exams on time – plan your travel in advance.

Don't bring your mobile phone, or make sure you know how to switch it off (including alarms and reminders). Fines apply if they go off in your exam!

Don't bring personal items as they might have to be left outside of the exam room. UEH-ISB does not take responsibility for items outside of the exam room.

No food or drink is allowed in the exam room. Only water in clear plastic containers.

No caps or hats are allowed in the exam room.

Read the learning guide on Elearning sites and exam policies at MyISB website for your information.

The tuition fee payment must be made prior to the closing date of the census date in every semester.

You are highly recommended to check the Important Dates (updated around October yearly on MyISB) to have an effective financial plan for the whole school year.

The tuition fee depends on the number of units you enroll in that semester. After your successful enrollment on MyISB, you can view the total payment by logging in your MyISB account.

You can make payment either:

1. Directly by cash / visa / master cards:
 - Office: ISB Accounting Department

Students who have not paid their tuition fees by the due date will have an encumbrance placed on their student records. If you have this encumbrance:

- Your enrolment in the current session may be cancelled
- You may not be able to re-enrol for the next teaching session
- We will not issue academic documents or transcripts related to your enrolment
- You will not be able to graduate

In order to have this encumbrance lifted, all outstanding fees must be paid. Students are advised to keep a record of payment for confirmation purposes. If there is any related issue, students can send an email to Accounting Department at accounting@isb.edu.vn.

School Policies

Students are bound by a number of rules, by-laws and policies. You need to make sure you know and comply with the rules for students set out in the School policies and keep up to date when policies change. Breaching these policies may lead to charges of academic, research and/or general misconduct and could seriously affect your course.

A full copy of the School Policies Handbook can be found online, or at UEH-ISB Office.

Enrolment

Students are informed clearly about the registered courses, schedule, course outlines, enrolments' requirements, and examination's requirements before the beginning of the teaching session on MyISB website. Students must be

For successful enrolment, students need to:

- Register and make sure they are enrolled correctly in each session via MyISB;
- Inform UEH-ISB office/ Student Advisors in regards to any errors or omissions before the approved census date. Any adjustments after the approved census date will not be solved unless there are unexpected circumstances;
- Ensure the enrolment meets course requirements which are consistent to the approved course structure.

Students should follow the approved census date which is published on MyISB.

Students must check schedules on MyISB, attend the correct classes and are not allowed to change the classes or units without the school's approval.

Students who want to enroll one more unit for the coming teaching session are required to submit an Add - Drop subject form to Student Advisors. The forms can be downloaded from MyISB.

Students who do not submit tuition fees on time to the Accounting department will be withdrawn from the student list. Failure to pay fees and charges by the prescribed date will lead to termination of enrolment.

Students may withdraw from a unit without academic penalty before the approved census date. Students formally withdrawing from units after the approved census date will automatically incur an academic penalty (Fail Discontinued). Students who withdraw due to extenuating circumstances may apply in writing to the Student Advisors for consideration of withdrawal without academic penalty.

Deferment

Students who want to defer from the course for the coming teaching session are required to submit a Deferment form (which is available on MyISB) to Student Advisors prior to the approved census date in order to avoid academic and financial penalties.

Students will receive an official deferment decision via email after completing the application.

The University permits students to take a maximum of twelve months leave of absence during the course, with only 6 months for EAP programs. To resume studies from deferment, students must contact Student Advisors to obtain advice on procedures and must enrol in units by the same date continuing students are required to finalise their unit enrolment.

Students who have not returned after the deferment will be regarded as having abandoned their course. Students cannot re-enrol after being expelled or resigning from the course. They need to re-apply for admission.

Assessment

Students' performance will be evaluated in a progress through a combination of assessment tasks which is transparently indicated in the Learning Guide at the beginning of each class. The total mark is the average mark weighted by proportion of each assessment task in a unit.

Assessment tasks may include attendance, individual assignment, group assignments, seminar, mid-term examination and final examination.

Some units have threshold requirements which may lead to unit failure if students violate, even though the total mark could be higher than 5.0/10 (or 50/100).

Students will face mark deduction or even a grade of zero (0) if they violate academic dishonesty such as cheating and plagiarism.

Grade Point Average (GPA) is used to measure the academic performance of individual students in order to acknowledge excellence and determine recipients of Excellence Awards.

GPA at UEH-ISB

$$\text{GPA} = \frac{\sum_{i=1}^n G_i \times C_i}{\sum_{i=1}^n C_i}$$

with G_i : Total mark of Unit i

C_i : Credit points of Unit i

$\sum_{i=1}^n C_i$: Total number of credit points accumulated in an award

Progression Policy

Pass less than 50% of credit points in last 12 months of enrolment

If you pass less than 50% of credit points attempted over a 12 month period of enrolment, you will be placed on conditional enrolment in a reduced study load for the following 12 months, provided you have not been on conditional enrolment before.

You are not permitted to enrol in other sessions while on conditional enrolment.

Pass less than 50% of credit points in 12 months of enrolment, having previously completed a period of conditional enrolment

If you have previously been on conditional enrolment and you pass less than 50% of credit points attempted in any subsequent 12 month period of enrolment, you will be excluded for the following 12 months.

This means your enrolment is cancelled for 12 months and you cannot continue in your course, nor can you transfer to another course or undertake non-award study. During the exclusion period you will not have access to University premises or facilities. Access to University systems, including your student email account, will cease after 90 days from the date of your exclusion. You will not be granted Advanced Standing (academic credit) for units completed at another university or tertiary institution during the period of exclusion.

Multiple failure of units on three separate occasions

If you fail the same unit, or its equivalent on three separate occasions you will be excluded from study for a period of 12 months as well.

Late Submission of Assessments

All quizzes, the mid-term test, group assignment and final exam must be taken on the assigned dates. Except where an extension has been approved for the submission of an assessment task by the Unit Coordinator, or in line with the University's Special Consideration Policy, the penalties will be given as stated in the unit guide.

For some serious misadventure, accident or extenuating circumstances which may impact adversely on academic performance, a special consideration and after the due date of assessment task. Submitting an application does not automatically mean the special consideration will be granted. Students will be notified in writing when your application has been approved or rejected - usually by email.

There will be no supplementary mid-term exam or quizzes, assignments. Students whose Special Consideration Application is approved, will have the weighting of his/her final exam increased on a pro rata basis to account for the missed assignments.

Examination

Students should be present at the examination room before 20 minutes from the starting time.

Students arrive late from 15 minutes onwards after the beginning of the exam will not be allowed into the exam venue.

Students who are unable to attend an Examination due to unexpected circumstances (such as serious illness, accident ...) must submit a Request form for absence from examination which is available on MyISB to the Student Advisor. The request form should be submitted to the Student Advisor before the examination date or after 3-5 days from the final exam date. In exceptional circumstances, students or family members can inform Student Advisor via email or via phone call/ message.

In order to apply Deferred Examination, students are required to submit Request for deferred examination (which is available on MyISB) to the Student Advisor. These students will attend final exam of the subject in the coming semester (if the subject is opened). For some exceptional circumstances, Training and Testing Department will consider about opening second examinations for the students.

Review of Grade

There may be instances when a student believes that their final grade in a unit does not correctly reflect their performance against the criteria. Students seeking review of assessment should, in the first instance, approach the lecturer responsible for the marking of that assessment item.

If students are unable to resolve it with the lecturer concerned, they can apply for a formal Review of Grade Form (available on MyISB) to Student Advisor within 15 working days of the result being released via MyISB (Stage 1).

Students will be notified of the outcome of their Review of Grade via their student email account. Where a student's review of grade results in a change of grade, the prescribed charge will be refunded.

Advanced Standing Assessment

UEH-ISB only grants Advanced Standing if the unit meets the requirements as follows:

- The grade of Advanced Standing Unit must be higher than 5.0 (following grade scale of 10), C (following grade scale of letter) or 2.0 (following grade scale of 4);
- The Advanced Standing Units must be highly consistent with UEH-ISB units' contents and assessments.

Advanced Standing is only once considered to grant at the beginning of the course and not taken into the GPA formula for granting scholarship. Late submission of Advanced Standing Application is not accepted.

Attendance

It is recommended that students attend all scheduled classes in order to succeed in the unit. UEH-ISB policy requires students to sign the follow-up attendance book before entering the classes.

Class attendance is compulsory and students should provide reasons as well as evidence for not being able to attend the class on a particular lecture/work- shop session. Students are required to attend a minimum of 80% of all classes in order to secure class assessment marks and be able to sit in the final exams. Please let your lecturers and/or UEH-ISB officer know by submitting a Request form for leave of absence and supporting evidence if you are unable to attend any session.

Arriving late by 15 minutes at the beginning, arriving late by 5 minutes after the break, or leaving prior to the scheduled end time without permission from the lecturers will equate to an absence. Grade reductions for the unit will be assessed when final grades are assigned if the above absence rule is violated during the unit.

Electronic Device

Cell phones or other electronic devices should be turned off or switched to vibrate mode before class starts. No phone calls or text messaging are allowed inside the classroom during class time. Portable listening and/or music devices may not be operated in the classroom. Headphones and/or ear buds of any type may not be worn while in the classroom whether operating or not. Laptop and other electronic devices are not permitted unless specifically authorized by the lecturer exclusively for note taking and doing class work. If you are in violation of these policies you will be excused from class and an absence will be assessed.

Dress Code

As a part of UEH, the International School of Business was established to create a world-class, modern and dynamic educational environment. Therefore, student appearance is considered one of a significant importance.

We do not intend to set the specific type of clothes to be worn to school, but occasionally find it necessary to say what shall NOT be permitted.

- a. Shorts are not allowed at the school. Skirts & dresses must be worn on the waist or hips and no more than 10 centimeters above the knee;
- b. Clothing that exposes underwear, underwear worn as outerwear, lack of underwear;
- c. Shirts/sweaters must cover the midsection, front and back, and have a modest or appropriate cut or neckline;

- g. Headgear (caps/hats, scarves, beanies, stocking caps, wave caps, etc.), sunglasses and headphones or earphones may not be worn in class or during indoor activities;

Email Etiquette

Your lecturers/ISB staff receive many emails each day. In order to enable them to respond to your emails appropriately and in a timely manner, students are asked to follow basic requirements of professional communication. Firstly, all emails should have a concise and descriptive title, including the class and name of the unit you are enquiring about as your lectures may be teaching more than one unit/class. Students need to be clear about the intention of their emails, use appropriate tone and language, proof-read what is written in the email before sending it.

Students should also allow 3-4 working days for a response before following up. If the matter is legitimately urgent, you may indicate this in the email subject header but be sure that the email does require an immediate response before using this strategy. If your email request is complex and requires a lengthy response it may be probably best to make an appointment with your lectures/ISB staff to meet in person.

University differs from High school

If you're starting uni straight after finishing high school, it can be a bit tricky to get your head around how differently some things work at UEH-ISB (compared to your school). The biggest difference between high school and university is that you're treated as an adult. That means you get to take greater control of how you spend your time and what you study. It also means that your education is your responsibility, no one is going to do it for you.

We know there's a lot to get your head around, so we've put together a list of some of the basic differences to help get you started.

Topic / term	High school	University
Types of assignments	The assignment types received in high school are limited and designed for straight-forward assessment.	Types of assessments vary and are designed to encourage critical thinking and independent learning. Most study work takes place outside class.
Scheduling	Teachers organise students' work and how they should prioritise their study time.	Preparing for your class is your responsibility. This includes managing and prioritising your work and getting things done on time. Lecturers and tutors will not prompt you.
Grievances	You express your problem with your teacher, who will report it to the principal.	Try to resolve the issue with your lecturer, Student Advisors or Program Director.
Support	There are often free school counsellors in schools who specialise in providing support and support documents.	Students have access to a range of free and confidential services including counselling, and academic support. It is the student's responsibility to seek out these services.
Contact with parents	Your parents or guardians play an important role in your schooling life. They are in regular contact with your teachers to help guide you in the right direction.	University staff, both administrative and teaching, can't talk to your parents (or anyone else) about you or disclose your information, unless you have signed the appropriate consent form.

Teachers vs academics	Teachers check your completed homework, remind you of your incomplete work, provide you with information you may have missed and remind you of assignments and due dates. Teachers are trained in teaching methods to assist in imparting knowledge to students.	Lecturers are usually open and helpful, but do not check required reading or remind you to complete homework. You are chiefly responsible for being on top of your uni work. Academics are trained as experts in their particular areas of research.

WHAT IS CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Bye Class See you again!

Co-curricular activities are known as out-of-class activities that reinforce and supplement the core curriculum in several ways. Students enjoy some forms of complementary learning when they get involved in activities such as student council, sporting events, talent shows, workshops, seminars, PR, Production, Drawing and Charity. The participation of these activities are recorded as forming part of student's academic results because they provide supplementary education for those students.

- Exploring themselves outside of academics.
- Developing their planning skills for their study and their life.
- Demonstrating proper personal behaviors to achieve trust and long-term success.
- Developing their interpersonal interaction and group dynamics.
- Developing professional communication skills.
